

Report of the lecture arranged on 21.03.2024:

A special lecture on "The Evolving Relationship of Economics with other Social Sciences" had been organised by Department of Economics and IQAC of Basanti Devi College in collaboration with Department of Economics of Asutosh College on 21.03.2024 at Basanti Devi College auditorium from 1:30 pm. Dr. Soumyen Sikdar, former professor of Economics, IIM, Kolkata was the speaker of this lecture. He discussed about how different economic ideas evolved with the passage of time from other branches of social sciences like History, Political Science, Sociology, Psychology and focused on how different branches of Economics emerged over time. 55 participants consist of 23 students and 2 faculty members of Asutosh College, 1 faculty member from Goyenka College, 15 students and 14 faculty members of different subjects of Basanti Devi College had enjoyed the lecture very much. Different queries of the participants in this issue were also attended by the speaker.