Report of Program

On March 29 and 30, 2019, the Department of Sociology and IQAC at Basanti Devi College organized a 2-Day Seminar cum Interactive Workshop on "Child Rights, Child Protection and Parenting/Care Giving" at the College Auditorium. The event was attended by 100 participants, including students, educators, child protection professionals, and caregivers.

The workshop featured two distinguished resource persons. The first day was led by Ms. Ananya Chatterjee Chakraborti, Chairperson of the West Bengal State Commission for Protection of Child Rights. Ms. Chakraborti's session focused on the legal frameworks and practical measures for ensuring child rights and protection. She provided an overview of child protection laws, the role of the State Commission in safeguarding children's rights, and effective strategies for addressing child abuse and neglect. Her engaging presentation included real-life case studies and interactive discussions on improving child protection mechanisms.

On the second day, Prof. (Dr.) Bula Bhadra from the Department of Sociology at the University of Calcutta took the floor to discuss parenting and caregiving. Dr. Bhadra explored various aspects of effective parenting, emphasizing the importance of creating nurturing and supportive environments for children. Her session covered topics such as positive discipline, emotional support, and the role of caregivers in child development. Participants were encouraged to share their experiences and engage in role-playing activities to practice effective caregiving techniques.

The seminar and workshop were highly successful, with participants expressing appreciation for the comprehensive and practical nature of the sessions. The event not only enhanced participants' understanding of child rights and protection but also equipped them with valuable skills for effective parenting and caregiving.
